

Put Your Stud in STALLION ALLEY

STALLION ALLEY is the first place breeders turn when searching for the ideal sire. Economically priced and arranged in an easy-to-read format, this templated ad directory is one of the most popular sections of the magazine.

Each ad is 1/8 page with one color photo and a brief description (35-word maximum). Ad proofs are not provided.

Only $200. Discounts available with signed contract.

All ads appear on painthorsejournal.com, at no additional charge, during the month of publication.

For more information, call (817) 222-6432.

Photo, form and payment must be received in our office by the 20th of the month, two months prior to issue date. Exceptions are the June issue (April 16) and December issue (October 15). If you plan to advertise in three or more issues, ask about our discounted rates.

3 Write your ad. Six lines of type, 43 characters in each line, one character per box below. The only abbreviations allowed are the acronyms listed in Step 2. One stallion per ad. "AQHA" and "JC" must follow horse's name where applicable and count as one word. "Unofficial" will be added to APHA title, points or awards not reflected in APHA records and will be included in the overall word count. Please print clearly and legibly. The Journal is not responsible for errors due to illegible handwriting. Advertising containing pedigrees or claims regarding points and titles earned by individual horses must accurately reflect the records maintained by APHA. Copy that is in variance with official APHA records, as compiled by the Registration and Performance Departments, will be changed as necessary without consent of the advertiser.

EACH LINE CAN HAVE A MAXIMUM OF 43 CHARACTERS, ONE CHARACTER PER BOX.

4 Select your method of payment. All Ads must be prepaid, unless a signed contract is on file. Check Enclosed VISA MasterCard American Express
