Other Horse Involvement	My husband and I run a small full board facility, which we have owned for 3 years. We also have 2 broodmares which have both had several successful foals in the show pen, and 1 has produced multi world and reserve world champions. Through selling our foals we have introduced 3 new members to APHA, and our regional club, the Florida Paint Horse Club, with only 3 years of breeding! This past June I showed our very first homebred to 3 world champion titles at Pinto World.

Membership and Service

I serve on the Florida Paint Horse Club as club secretary. I have held this position since 2015. I am also the Florida Pinto Horse Association club vice president, a position I have held since 2017. Prior to serving as vice president, I was a board member since 2013.

I am also the chair of our regional clubs scholarship committee. The scholarship committee began 2 years ago and we have devised guidelines and implemented fundraising to cover the several scholarships that have been awarded to our club members.
