

From Chillicothe, Ohio, I have been judging for 30 years. I started out as a 4H member and progressing on to judging both open and 4-H shows and gradually working my way up through the ranks to earning my breed cards. Currently I am carded with AQHA, APHA, NSBA, PHBA, ApHC, PtHA, ABRA, IBHA and NASMA. Some of my favorite and more notable shows I have been fortunate enough to judge are as follows:

2018 All American Quarter Horse Congress

2019 NSBA World Show

2018 Australian Appaloosa Championships

2018, 2017, 2015 AQHA Novice championships

2018, 2014, 2010 PtHA World Show

2018, 2019 Equita Lyon French Championships

2017 Dutch Championships

2019, 2015, 2013, 2011 APHA World Show

2016 National Pleasure Horse Association Australian Championships

2016 PHBA World Show

2014 ApHC World Show

2015 ABRA World Show

2013 Swedish AQHA National Show

2016, 2013 Color Breed Congress

2013 PHBA Youth World

In 2019 I was appointed by APHA President Mike Short to a National Directors position and the Show and Contest Committee. He and I both felt that was great fit for me given my experience in both judging, the equine industry as a whole and my experience in horse show management. I'm also the scholarship coordinator for Columbus State Community College in Columbus, Ohio. APHA is a great organization and I would love to help that tradition continue and help to add to the

