APHA Mission Statement

To promote, preserve and provide meaningful experiences with Paint Horses.

APHA Animal Welfare Statement

APHA is committed to the humane and proper treatment of all animals. In this respect:

- The welfare of the animal is the primary consideration in all activities.
- Animals will be treated with kindness, respect and compassion at all times.
- Responsible care will be used by all parties in handling, treatment and transportation of animals.
- Horsemen and -women, as owners, exhibitors or trainers, will ensure the health and well-being of animals in their care at all times.
- The standard by which conduct, or treatment will be measured is that which a reasonable person, informed and experienced in generally accepted animal husbandry standards and equine care, training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive, nor inhumane.

Based on these principles, the Association has developed and enforces strict rules to ensure ethical competition and humane treatment of American Paint Horses. The Association supports the development of procedures that assure equity, fairness, safety, health and welfare for all participants. Because the Association is strongly opposed to animal abuse, any member convicted in a court of law of cruelty to animals may be suspended from APHA when certified evidence is presented to the Board of Directors. Further, APHA reserves the right to excuse from further competition and/or remove from the grounds any person who fails to abide by this animal welfare statement and/or any animal whose welfare is under question by APHA.

Sportsmanship Rules

“For when the One Great Scorer comes to mark against your name, he writes—not that you won or lost—but how you played the game.”
(Grantland Rice)

One of the primary objectives of the American Paint Horse Association is to encourage high moral character and good sportsmanship among its members while at the same time inspiring exemplary conduct in all phases of competition and instilling a sense of fairness and responsibility for the rigors of showmanship as well as the greater issues of life.

Negative conduct, including harassment, bullying, or any other form of unsportsmanlike conduct will not be permitted by the APHA, and any person engaging in such action or conduct will be disciplined to the full extent permitted by the APHA rules. Unsportsmanlike or irresponsible conduct or any other form of misconduct that is illegal, indecent, profane, intimidating, threatening, harassing or abusive is prohibited. The APHA will not tolerate such behavior and violators will be excused from competition and/or removed from the show grounds and are subject to further disciplinary action.

Anti-Bullying Statement

Everyone has the right to work and show in an environment free from harassment or bullying where they feel safe. The stress placed on targets of bullying have far reaching effects on the emotional health and wellbeing of the victims and on the organization in which it occurs. Bullying can be physical, verbal, written, cyber acts or merely psychological. Incitement of others to such acts is also bullying. THE APHA EXPRESSLY PROHIBITS THE BULLYING OF ANY PERSON BY ANY MEANS AT ANY APHA FUNCTION OR APHA RELATED FUNCTION.

Good Sportsmanship Rules

Good sportsmanship is about playing by the rules, discipline, respect and self-control. Good sportsmanship is not just what you do in the arena, but the way you conduct yourself both in and out of the arena.

1. The “Golden Rule” – Do unto others as you would have others do unto you. Show respect for your opponents if you expect it yourself.
2. Have an understanding and an appreciation of the rules. The spirit of good sportsmanship depends on conforming to the intent of the rules.
3. Enjoy yourself and encourage enjoyment for others.
4. Take responsibility for your actions.
5. Recognize and appreciate good performances, especially by the opponent.
6. Respect the integrity and judgment of the judges and show officials.
7. Expect proper behavior from your teammates, trainers, family and friends.
8. Accept both victory and defeat with pride and compassion.
